The llama entry fee includes performance for one handler. It can be an adult or a youth. Only llamas shown by a youth may be taken through a second time by an “additional youth”. He or she will be issued their own exhibitor number. Only the first trip through will count as the llama’s score. All llamas will compete over the same courses.

Stalling

There are three stalls available inside the show barn. They are reserved for “Peace Sponsors” only. If you would like to use a stall, please consider sponsoring the event.

Showing from your trailer

You must provide your own panels, pop-ups, fans, generators, etc. Whatever you need to house your llamas safely and comfortably. You’ll be parking on grass. Limited access to electricity is reserved for sponsoring farms. If you do not have panels, contact us and we’ll see what we can work out.

Camping

We encourage you to camp out! If staying in an RV it must be fully self contained. There is a bathroom with hot water in the barn (no showers).

Food Truck

“Catch the Chef” food truck will be here for lunch. Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Wash stall

The barn has a wash stall with a water heater. There is just one hose, but you are welcome to use the wash stall to bathe your llamas. Early arrival is recommended.

Dogs

Please leave your dogs at home. If you must bring them, they have to be contained/crated or on a leash at all times. Dogs will not be permitted in the show barn at all.

Exhibitors are encouraged to camp out with us. However there are nearby options. Charlottesville is a college town, so, if you plan to stay in a hotel, make reservations early.
